

bolt agency

bolt agency is here for all of your auto, home and business insurance needs.

Our mission is to protect automobile owners, property owners, and small business owners from the risks they face every single day, including the hidden risks—by delivering best in class insurance products and service to protect you.

We believe there is a better way to sell insurance and service customers by providing choice and expertise to all. Our company understands that the insurance business is complicated. We also appreciate the demands on your time and energy. We efficiently help you to determine which of our nationally respected insurance carriers will be a good fit for your needs so you can be confident that you are adequately protected.

bolt agents are proactive. We help you to get better coverage at a fair price. We are only a quick call away and our website is available 24/7.

We help you understand your options. bolt agents work with "A" rated insurance companies to find the exact coverage to meet your specific needs. We understand that the best choice for you can even change over time, so we are there for you! You can quickly and easily compare quotes, which saves time and hassle.

At bolt, we speak "plain" English. We help you sort through the complicated world of insurance. We help you understand what's covered, what's not covered.
